Bird: Oh my! Where is Fish?

Lizard: Isn't Fish in his tank?

Bird: No, Fish is gone.

Bird: Squirrel, do you know where Fish has gone?
Squirrel: No. I heard a splash, though.
Bird: A splash? But Fish is not in his tank!

Bird: Zebra, do you know where Fish has gone?
Zebra: No. He said it was Tuesday, though.
Bird: Tuesday? But how will I learn where Fish has gone?

Elephant: Bird, you can put together the pieces of this puzzle. Fish often takes a bath on Tuesday.

Bird: Oh Elephant, thank you!

Bird: Fish! We're together at last!

Fish: Hello Bird. Will you pass me the soap?

Bird: Here it is, Fish. Have a very good bath!

Finding Answers

Read Together

What do you do when you have a question? How do you find answers?

Have you ever looked up something in an encyclopedia? Have you ever looked up something online? Have you ever asked someone for help?

Or, maybe you've done what Bird did: followed the clues and found the answer yourself!

Think and Share

Read Together

1. What makes this play a fantasy?
2. Who gave Bird the clues to find Fish?
How can you tell which character is talking?
3. Use each of the words listed in a sentence.

Word	Sentence
together
pieces
learn
often

4. Have you ever solved a problem by yourself? If not, who did you ask for help?
